

The Society of Recorder Players
Cambridge Branch
Playing Day
Directed by Michael Graham

Saturday June 1st 2019

Hemingford Abbots Village Hall, High Street, Hemingford Abbots, PE28 9AH

Michael is a conductor and composer based in Edinburgh. He currently works with various orchestral, choral and instrumental ensembles in Scotland and further afield performing a wide range of styles and musical periods. Described as having “an infectious enthusiasm for music”, he served as Musical Director to the SRP Edinburgh Branch between 2011 and 2017. In 2013, he established the Edinburgh Recorder Ensemble, a one-to-a-part chamber orchestra. He has won several prizes for conducting and in January 2019, he was awarded the prestigious Bayreuth Scholarship from the Wagner Society of Scotland. Michael is currently the Centrespread Composition Editor of The Recorder Magazine.

Our playing day promises to be a varied and interesting event with expert direction from Michael Graham

Playing will start at 10am, so plan to arrive by 930am to give you time to set up. We aim to finish by 4pm with a break for lunch, and short coffee and tea breaks in the morning and afternoon. There is a pub in the village, but best to bring a packed lunch. Hot drinks and biscuits will be provided as part of the £15 fee.

Please complete the attached form and return to Gill Simmonds with your cheque for £15 to guarantee your place. No acknowledgement will be sent, but if you require one please enclose a stamped addressed envelope.

If you have any queries please contact gills39@btinternet.com

Bring all the instruments you wish to play, and don't forget to bring a music stand.
Big Basses especially welcome!
