Banchetto Musicale

In 1733, Telemann composed his famous collection, "Musique de Table". A manuscript dating from 1670, belonging to the archbishop of Olomouc was given the title "Sonata pro Tabula". Henry VIII took daily pleasure in the sound of recorders during his meals and in the company of dainty ladies and influential politicians. Schein collected his dance music into a "Banchetto Musicale". Titles such as Musicalisches Tafel-Konfekt, Tafel-Dienst, Mensa sonora, Musicalische Tafel-Bedienung, Musique pour les soupers du Roi, Musical Banquet, Encaenta musices, and Servizio della tavola have been the daily fare over the ages. The idea of the musical banquet was popular throughout the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries. Christoforo di Messisbugo, a renowned chef at the court of the countess of Ferrara in Italy around 1550, compiled a splendid cookbook with 315 different recipes accompanied by careful instructions on how, where and when music, dance and theatre should be performed during the various dishes.

With this program, "Banchetto Musicale", we hope to tickle your palate with a musical banquet in which we get out our best silver service, recorders of the highest quality in all shapes and sizes, and use them in 1001 different ways. To live up to the title, we're even performing on beer and wine bottles from our own cellars!

Our menu, "Symphonie des 7 Dégustations", is made up of French hors d'oeuvres, Italian antipasti, a queenly serving of our daily special, and to finish, a scrumptious array of desserts. You'll be offered something of everything: old and new dishes from the north, south, east and west. Crack open a bottle of bubbly, sit back, and enjoy our house specialties. Cheers!

The Ambassadors of the Recorder...

Since it was founded in 1987, the Flanders Recorder Quartet has evolved into one of the world's top ensembles. The ensemble's success in 1990 at the prestigious Musica Antiqua Competition in Brugge, which is sponsored by the Flanders Festival, was the start of an extensive concert career. After more than 1800 concerts on five continents, including some in world-famous concert halls in Tokyo, New York and Salzburg, the ensemble has attained a prominent position in the world of Early Music. The ensemble also makes regular guest appearances at leading music festivals such as those in Helsinki, Paris, Geneva, Boston, Vancouver, Singapore, Taipeh, and Mexico City. Numerous prizewinning recordings have been made for record companies such as Harmonia Mundi, Archiv/Deutsche Grammophon, Ricercar, and OPUS 111. In 2003 the quartet entered a long and intensive collaboration with the German label AEOLUS.

For anyone booked into the Scottish Recorder Festival, this concert is included

Concert only tickets: Adult £10, Child £5

Preceding the concert, at 4.00 p.m. there will be a short performance by the Scottish Recorder Orchestra (free to everyone) followed by an opportunity to take tea and browse the shops.
