Weekend Recorder Course

7-9th September 2012
at the Friars in Aylesford nr. Maidstone with Kathryn Bennetts and Peter Bowman

A residential course for advanced recorder players covering repertoire from early to modern with technique classes and ensemble playing, including one-to-a-part

This year's theme will be
Under the Influence (of Folk Song)

Kathryn Bennetts and Peter Bowman have focused their performing career on the recorder duo repertoire both old and new. Together they have performed throughout the UK and Europe and have recorded two CDs. With a particular interest in contemporary music they have had numerous works written for them most notably from Gavin Bryars, Nicola Lefanu and Hans-Martin Linde. Their work with New Guide to Opera led to both radio and stage performances of Kathryn and Peter cross Antarctica in Germany and 2012 will see the premiere of Michael Wolters' The Voyage, one of the commissions which form part of the New Music 20x12 Cultural Olympiad.

Cost: £182.50 single room, £177.50 shared room / senior citizens, This includes full board accommodation from Friday 18.00 until Sunday 16.00 as well as tuition. Limited to 20 participants.

For more information please contact
Ulli Burchette, 120 Hopgarden Road, Tonbridge, TN10 4QX
Tel: 01732 354763, Email: ulli.burchette@gmail.com

Please send applications to Ursula (Ulli) Burchette by 31st May 2012, including a £10 non-returnable deposit made payable to Dunorlan Recorders and marked Friars 2012 on the reverse. The balance will be due by mid July; cancellations less than 6 weeks in advance of the course: the full course fee will be due unless we can fill the place.

Application for Weekend Recorder Course

7th-9th September 2012 at the Friars, Aylesford

Name……

Address……

……

Postcode……Tel……...

Email……

If you are new to the Friars courses please state your playing standard ……..

Instruments to be played on the course (please circle):

Sop S A T B Gb Cb

Preferred accommodation: single room £182.50
shared room £177.50 pp
senior citizen £177.50