Jay Mathews

Jay is a retired Headteacher who enjoys playing a variety of instruments from keyboards to ukulele in bands and groups. She is an enthusiastic advocate for recorders, particularly enjoying playing the bigger instruments like great and contra basses. Jay was a member of the Phoenix Recorder Orchestra and now plays in the Windrush Recorder Orchestra. She conducts a U3A Recorder group. Assisted by her sister who has a huge library of recorder music, Jay loves bringing interesting, playable and varied music to her groups.

North Cotswold/Oxford SRP members £10, visitors £15.

Bring your own lunch. Tea, coffee and cakes provided.
