

Edinburgh SRP workshop and masterclass with Eileen Silcocks

- Saturday 22nd February 9.30 am (registration and coffee) till 4.30 pm
- Eric Liddell Centre – Holy Corner, Morningside Edinburgh EH10 4DP
- All recorder players welcome (with music stand)

Mass playing and audience attendance - Free

Edinburgh SRP Branch group participants - £5

Non Edinburgh SRP group participants - £8

The full day fee covers venue hire, tea and coffee. Bring your own lunch or use one of the many cafe/restaurants nearby.

10.00 – 10.45	Tutti – mass playing
11.00 – 12.15	3 x 25 minute tuition sessions
12.15 – 1.15	Lunch
1.15 - 1.45	Tutti – Mass Playing
1.45 – 3.00	3 x 25 minute tuition sessions
3.15 – 4.00	2 x 25 minute tuition sessions
4.00 – 4.30	Tutti - mass playing

- Tuition sessions are for groups of up to 6 players for pieces no more than 6 minutes long with tutoring by Eileen (in front of rest of attendees).
- A keyboard will be available. Anyone needing it must provide their own accompanist.
- Please email neil.mcintosh@ed.ac.uk with detail on back if you wish to come, and particularly if you wish your group to play. After mid January any remaining session slots will be advertised outside the Edinburgh SRP.

Please send the details below as soon as possible to neil.mcintosh@ed.ac.uk

Any and all recorder players welcome for the day. [I hope all Edinburgh SRP members will take advantage of this opportunity to play in a small group (if you don't already do so) and get friendly and constructive comment from an expert. Please don't feel you have to be "professional" or even very good to be part of this session]

- Name
- Contact details (email and phone, at least):

- Number in group
- Piece you wish to perform (please no more than 6 minutes):
-
- Do you require keyboard? Y/N
- Do you have an accompanist? Y/N

- For audience/ mass playing participation please ring the recorders you could bring and play in the mass playing sessions

Descant Treble Tenor Bass Great Contra

Don't forget a music stand

- Signed