She also worked as a tutor on the Recorder Summer School for ten years, having previously attended as a student. Although she relocated to the Midlands in 2006, she continues to play with (and sometimes conduct) the London Recorder Orchestra and South London SRP. She regularly conducts the London SRP branches (in addition to branches nearer home) and currently directs an adult recorder workshop in Lincoln. Sheila is also a keen arranger of music for recorder ensemble and in 2001 started Willobie Press which publishes some of her work.

There will be four sessions of playing conducted by Sheila, with breaks in between, including a break for lunch from 1.00p.m. to 2.00p.m. Refreshments at breaks are included, but please bring a packed lunch. There are also cafés and restaurants within walking distance. All music will be provided. Please bring a music stand.
