

SOCIETY OF RECORDER PLAYERS

Registered Charity Nos. 282751, SC038422

GUILDFORD BRANCH

Playing Day with EMMA MURPHY

Saturday 18th May 2019, 10.30 to 5.30

East Horsley Village Hall, Kingston Avenue, East Horsley KT24 6QT

Emma is well known to recorder players as a gifted, lively and versatile performer and tutor. A graduate of Birmingham University and Trinity College of Music, her interest in music from the mediaeval period to the present day means that we can expect a very rewarding day. Further information about Emma can be found at www.easterearlymusiccourse.org.uk/tutors/

East Horsley Village Hall has plenty of parking and is all on one level. It is a few minutes' walk from Horsley rail station. Bring a packed lunch – plenty of space outside if the weather is good – or visit the local shopping parade, which includes a coffee shop, a few minutes' walk away. A map will be available on the programme once you have booked.

Cost is £15.00 for SRP members, £20.00 for non-members, students £7.50 and £10.00 respectively. It will be helpful to know which instruments you will be bringing and are willing to play, especially if you play a larger instrument - please tick on the application form below. You will need a music stand (stands can be borrowed if you are on public transport – tick below)

.....
To book a place please fill in the form below and post or email to Sue Pluthero, 18 Clarendon Road, Ashford, Middlesex TW15 2QE email guildford@srp.org.uk. Cheques should be made out to SRP Guildford Branch or pay online by BACS to Sort Code 40-22-26 Account no 51101943 with the reference Play Day 2019
