Marg Hall from East Lothian is a Visiting Conductor of the SRP. She will be conducting a wide variety of music from the Renaissance to the present day. Her own compositions include 'Sunrise to Sunset' (Winner of the Big Bass Competition 2005), 'Happy Birthday, SRP' for their 75th anniversary and her Symphony No. 1 commissioned by Dietrich Schnabel. She has taught the recorder for over 30 years and is a member of Solsequium Consort.

Her other interests include singing, piano, classical guitar, poetry and pottery.
