Mary Tyers is the Musical Director of the Durham Branch of the SRP which she co-founded about thirty years ago.

She is regularly invited to conduct other SRP branches such as West Riding, Newcastle and York Guildhall, has conducted at several of the national SRP festivals and the Scottish Recorder Festival, and at least once a year leads a recorder consort weekend at Parcevall Hall in Yorkshire.

Her first degree is in music, with recorder as joint first study alongside flute and singing. She completed her MMus in 2007 with recorder, baroque flute and 18thC performance practice very much to the fore. She is a tutor at the NORVIS and HISS Summer Schools and in 2015 was awarded the SRP's Certificate for 'Long Service to Recorder Playing'. She still performs regularly with local choirs and with period instrument orchestras throughout the north of England.

Whilst to a certain extent specialising in early music she enjoys teaching and performing a wide range of periods and genres.

There will be four sessions of playing conducted by Mary, with breaks in between, including a break for lunch from 1.00p.m. to 2.00p.m. Refreshments at breaks are included, but please bring a packed lunch.
