Registered Charity No. 282751

Registered Charity (Scotland) No. SC038422

EDINBURGH BRANCH PLAYING DAY

Saturday 22 February 2020 10.30 p.m. – 5.30 p.m.

St Columba's by the Castle,
Episcopal Church (blue door)

14 Johnston Terrace, Edinburgh EH1 2PW

The Visiting Conductor will be

Michael Graham

Michael is a conductor and composer based in Edinburgh. He currently works with various orchestral, choral and instrumental ensembles in Scotland and further afield performing a wide range of repertoire, from historical to contemporary styles. Described as having “an infectious enthusiasm for music”, he served as the Edinburgh Society of Recorder Players’ Musical Director between 2011 and 2017 and established and directed the Edinburgh Recorder Ensemble, a one-to-a-part chamber orchestra. He has won several prizes in conducting from the University of Edinburgh and the Association of British Choral Directors. In January 2019, he was awarded the prestigious Bayreuth Scholarship from the Wagner Society of Scotland. Michael is currently the Centrespread Composition Editor of The Recorder Magazine.

There will be four sessions of playing conducted by Michael, with breaks in between, including a break for lunch from 1.00p.m. to 2.00p.m. Refreshments at breaks are included, but please bring a packed lunch. There are also cafés and restaurants within walking distance. All music will be provided. Please bring a music stand.

If you intend to come, please complete the accompanying form and return with payment to the Secretary of the Edinburgh Branch by Sunday 16 February 2020. There will be a charge of £10.00. If you are unable to return the form in advance you are still welcome to come and your fee will be collected on the day.
