

OFFICERS REPORTS TO SRP COMMITTEE, 5 FEBRUARY 2006

SECRETARY

I have authorised 31 pastoral visits for the current financial year and three for 2006 07 and have, to date, received 14 Conference application forms (CAFs) from branches. I am pleased to say that the majority of pastoral visit applications were received by and authorised on-line. A number of branch CAFs have also been returned to me by this method and would urge branches (and committee members too) who have not yet been in contact with me to use this as the method of choice; it is quick, easy and cheap.

There are a number of changes to branch secretaries:

MEMBERSHIP SECRETARY

Most of the branch levies have been paid and membership lists submitted. Since the start of this season there have been a few misconceptions about who needs what ! I would like to clarify that branch accounts should be sent to the Society Treasurer, Brian Fraser-Hook (next year to his successor) and that membership lists and levy cheques be sent to me as Membership Secretary. When new members join in September, ideally branch treasurers need to send me a cheque and contact details for these people. If I have not been given the relevant information I cannot ask Peacock Press to send them a December issue of the magazine. It would save us having upset members. I have some ideas which I hope will make the job easier for me when I process the data sent to me and also to help new treasurers. I intend to send these suggestions to branch treasurers before next year.

CHAIRMAN, WALTER BERGMAN FUND

In November the fund awarded a special prize for £300.00 at the Moeck Solo Recorder Finals. We looked at five applicants at our recent meeting and gave two awards for the purchase of recorders. The fund is placing an advert in the Spring edition of the Recorder Magazine for applicants for the 2006 Philip Cole Bursary, our annual award of £700.00 to a major project featuring young recorder players.

SRP NEWS EDITOR

For the second consecutive issue we have had fewer than our 4 pages in the Magazine. For the spring issue I have submitted about 250 more words than usual and will be interested to see what happens. I hope it will not result in a reduction of the print size.

The spring issue will include more information about the Festival and news from NYRO. I was able to include a brief notice of the death of Mary Cavalier-Smith, a founder member of the SRP, who died on 30th December. Ron Skins will write an obituary for the spring issue, and this will also go on the website.

The deficit for the year was £2,211 leaving the fund at £25,783 on the 31 August with a further loss of £2,557 anticipated for the year 2005-06.

Last February I anticipated a break-even figure by 31 August, but notable extra expenditure arose since then, viz. Annual Conference cost £370 more than predicted, Committee Expenses up by £370, Conductors visits costs greater by £500, a backdated printing charge of £1,160 and no account taken of the agreed £993 ex-gratia payment to Wessex for Festival 2004. Some items did cost less than forecast, namely magazine £500, Festival loss was £450 less than forecast, and the Competition £1,376 less for this year (the main expense will come into the current year).

Subscription income fell by £460 compared with 2003/04 and subscriptions for 2003/04 were £380 less than 2002/03.

The Walter Bergmann Fund received £2,882 in donations, £536 share of Festivals surplus and £1,755 share of bank interest. It made grants totalling £4,800 and donated £300 to sponsor a recital for the ERTA Ensemble competition. The year s surplus was £73 leaving its fund at £44,337.

I have still received no information on transactions within the various NYRO accounts and can only report on the items dealt with through the Central Fund account.

In view of the deficit for the rear 2004-05 and my predicted loss for the current year I feel it prudent to propose that we increase the Subscription by at least £3.50 from September 2006. This would mean the rates would rise to, at least, £17.50 per full member, £28.00 per household membership and £12.50 for students.

FINALLY

I cannot complete the 2004-05 accounts until I receive Roxborough s branch accounts and NYRO s audited accounts.

We only sent our 2003-04 accounts to the Charity Commissioners on the 21st June last year; thus avoiding, by the skin of our teeth, the threatened enquiry into our affairs by the Commission had we missed their 30th June deadline.

I need to complete our 2004-05 accounts within the next four weeks if we are to present audited accounts to conference on the 2nd April. Also my tenure as Honorary Treasurer ends on that date and I will have no authority to continue.

That concludes my report.
