

SRP Cambridge Branch Playing Day

Enjoy a full day of recorder playing with a varied programme and expert direction from

Michael Graham

Saturday October 14th, 2023 - 10am-4pm

Hemingford Abbots Village Hall, High Street, Hemingford Abbots. PE28 9AH

Playing will start at 10am, so plan to arrive in time to set up (doors open shortly after 9.30am). We aim to finish by 4pm with a break for lunch and short coffee and tea breaks in the morning and afternoon. There is a pub in the village, but best to bring a packed lunch. Free hot drinks and biscuits will be available.

To secure your place, please print off and complete the attached form and return it by post to Tricia Perrin, 16 Priors Court, Sutton, Ely CB6 2PY or send your details by email to t2perrin@btinternet.com. Please make a £15 payment for your booking fee at the same time as submitting your form. Payment by bank transfer would be preferred, but, alternatively, you can enclose a cheque payable to Society of Recorder Players (Cambridge Branch) when posting your form. Your place will be confirmed by email or phone. If you have any queries, contact Tricia at the above address or on 07563 635788.

BRING ALL THE INSTRUMENTS YOU WISH TO PLAY, AND DON'T FORGET A MUSIC STAND.

BIG BASSES ESPECIALLY WELCOME

Michael Graham is a prize-winning conductor and composer based in Edinburgh, who works with many different instrumental and vocal ensembles covering a wide range of musical styles. He served for 6 years as the Edinburgh SRP's Musical Director and established the Edinburgh Recorder Ensemble. In 2019, he was awarded the prestigious Bayreuth Scholarship from the Wagner Society of Scotland. Michael is currently the Centrespread Composition Editor of The Recorder Magazine.

Cambridge Playing Day with Michael Graham, Saturday 14th October 2023

Please register me for the Cambridge SRP Playing Day. Delete payment method as appropriate:

I have transferred £15 to the following account on (date):

Sort code: 77-05-10 Account number: 17884268

Reference: CAMPLAYDAY plus your initials (e.g. CAMPLAYDAY TP)

OR

I enclose a cheque for £15 payable to: Society of Recorder Players (Cambridge Branch)

Name

Email address

Phone number