This year we are supporting two charities
Help Musicians is an independent UK charity for professional musicians of all genres, from starting out through to retirement. They help at times of crisis, but also at times of opportunity, giving people the extra support they need at a crucial stage that could make or break their career.

Please go to <https://www.helpmusicians.org.uk/support-our-work> to make your donation.

The Stroke Association helps rebuild the lives of stroke survivors by funding specialist services and groups so survivors can get the support they need.

Thanks to Anne and Alan Martin for hosting the Edinburgh Branch's Zoom meetings over the past 15 months when we could not meet in person, and to those members who kept us entertained and informed by giving talks and leading play-along sessions throughout the season: Eileen Finlayson, Bea Frances, Kate Hajducka, Anne Martin, Susan McLarty, Margaret McLay, Tom Pitcairn, Dorothy Thomas and Peter Wraith

Thanks also to guest speaker, Cumbria Branch member, Ian Johnston, for his talk on the acoustics of the recorder.

The branch also enjoyed zoom recitals by Emma Murphy and Andrew Collis and a workshop on Playing by Ear led by Annabel Knight.
