

Society of Recorder Players Workshop

Explore Folk with Michelle Holloway

Saturday February 21st, 2026 - 10am-4pm

Hemingford Abbots Village Hall, High Street, Hemingford Abbots. PE28 9AH

Explore Folk

Come and explore folk ornamentation and folk tunes from across the continents. Be prepared to develop your musical skills and give new things a go, including dabbling with odd time signatures and learning by ear in a safe, supportive environment.

Michelle Holloway

Michelle teaches recorder at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire Junior Department and many schools. She conducts the Heart of England Recorder Orchestra, the Phoenix Recorder Orchestra, and the Birmingham Schools' Recorder Sinfonia. As a performer she plays wild, eclectic folk with her band Bonfire Radicals, historical chamber music in the group Florisma and the contemporary recorder in the group Decibel. Venues range from London's Cadogan Hall and Birmingham's Symphony Hall, to tiny underground folk clubs and muddy fields!

Playing will start at 10am, so plan to arrive in time to set up (doors open shortly after 9.30am). We aim to finish at 4pm. Bring your recorders and a music stand. There is a pub in the village, but best to bring your own packed lunch. Free hot drinks and biscuits will be available in the breaks.

To secure your place, please follow the booking instructions at the bottom of this page. If you have any queries, contact Tricia Perrin at t2perrin@btinternet.com or on 07563 635788.
