After studying music at Cambridge, Michael spent the next few years touring the world playing popular classics on numerous unlikely instruments at improbable speeds, accompanied by an accordion under the name "The Cambridge Buskers". During this period, he also performed in a more serious capacity on the recorder with the Academy of Ancient Music and Recorded a Vivaldi concerto with them. Subsequent recordings included the complete Vivaldi recorder concertos and the Telemann double concerto for Deutsche Grammophon and Bach's Brandenburgs with the Italian chamber orchestra I Música. He is a founder member of the Chuckerbutty Ocarina Quartet which performed to both great acclaim and bemusement at the SRP National Festival in Cambridge. Recently Michael has devoted more time to teaching, arranging and conducting. He regularly conducts the Cambridge branch of the SRP and has done more than fifty arrangements for them ranging from the Baroque and Renaissance to Klezmer, Balkan and popular orchestral numbers which form the repertoire of his pastoral visits.
