If you have read "A week in the life of Miriam Monaghan" in the Summer 2026 issue of The Recorder Magazine, you will know that Miriam Monaghan is bursting with energy, talent and creativity. She is a founder member and musical director of the award-winning Palisander Quartet. It is Miriam who curates their concerts and indeed arranges or composes much of their repertoire. She graduated from the Guildhall School of Music and is now a regular tutor for Morley College (adult education), the Recorder Summer School and the National Youth Recorder Orchestra.

Playing will start at 10am, so plan to arrive in time to set up (doors open shortly after 9.30am). We aim to finish by 4pm. There will be short breaks for coffee, lunch and tea. There is a pub in the village, but best to bring your own packed lunch. Free hot drinks and biscuits will be available.
